

Over the past decade Kelly Barnes has built a reputation as one of a kind story teller and leadership trainer that is sure to bring a one of a kind message that audiences will remember long after the event is over.

Kelly has presented to over a million students, teachers and business leaders all across the U.S. and Canada. His keynotes, workshops and seminars provide an entertaining and engaging experience that leaves attendees with tangible tools for improvement and growth.

Kelly is an accomplished leader with a 20 year background in organizational leadership, personal growth and team development. His ability to relate to his audience comes from his years serving as an elected leader and entrepreneur. Kelly has served the Oklahoma FFA association as the 2002-03 State Vice-President and the 2003-04 State President. In 2005 he was elected to serve as the Vice-President of the Oklahoma State University Student Government Association where he received his degree in Leadership.

When he is not speaking, Kelly enjoys running marathons, watching baseball, reading and most of all spending time with his beautiful daughters Bowen.
